

TOURISM

In addition to world class wing shooting, big game hunting, and fishing, we also offer various tourism excursions such as wine tours, hiking and snowskiing, as well as city tours and tango shows.

You tell us what to do, we will make all of the arrangements.

FISHING

We offer Dorado fishing in northern Argentina on the Parana River. Trout fishing is in Patagonia with a number of options offered depending on your personal wishes.

Freshwater Dorado—This golden salmon-like fish is a strong swimmer and relentless hunter. Powerful jaws and sharp teeth, combined with hard strikes, acrobatic leaps and finger-burning runs by a fighting machine, make Dorado fishing a breath-taking experience. Fly fishing is superb but spin and bait casters will find Dorado to be very “lure friendly.” Dorado's average size is 4 to 8 pounds, but 20-pounders are not uncommon. Besides Dorado, you may also catch Surubi, Pacu, Boga, Pirana, Taraira and Catfish. They are super-sportive species, so...get prepared!

Trout—Nestled in a pristine area of Patagonia, surrounded by the majestic Andes Mountains we fish unspoiled lakes and free running rivers and streams for brown, rainbow and brook trout. Our focus is comfort, service and exclusivity. Our guest accommodations consist of cabanas with spacious rooms equipped with two beds, private bath and shower. Fishing is either on the nearby rivers, or in lakes, from boats or shore where wading is possible.

We endorse a Catch & Release policy. The only fish kept are those which if released would die.

ARGENTINA “A Wing Shooter’s Paradise”

Argentina Wild Wings offers what many consider to be the best wingshooting in the world. Known worldwide for its fine cuisine, luxurious accommodations, and superb hunting, a stay with us is an experience in itself. Our goal is to provide the very best Argentina has to offer.

Argentina Wild Wings is proud to offer the great hunting opportunity to the discriminating sportsman. Thousands of acres of prime habitat, experienced Argentina guides and staff, ensure a world class operation that specializes in great wingshooting for doves, ducks, perdiz, or pigeons. We also offer world class big game hunting, fishing for trout and dorado and various tourism packages.

High Volume Dove Hunts

An estimated 83 million doves live in the areas surrounding our lodges. We hunt tens of thousands of acres including a fourteen thousand acre roost. The most common dove is the ‘Torcaza’ or eared dove and are very similar to the mourning dove found in the United States. Because of the stable weather patterns, grain crops such as corn, wheat, and sorghum are grown year round, doves in the area reproduce up to five or six times annually and are not migratory so the hunting is always phenomenal. Clients can expect to shoot 1000-2500 rounds per day, should they so choose. Doves fly all day, there’s no limit and the season is all year. This is high volume shooting at its best!

Decorated in the traditional patagonian decor La Zenaida offers all modern amenities. Capacity: 16 guns, (8 guns is ideal)

Duck and Perdiz Hunts

Our duck hunting operations specialize in great gunning for a wide species of ducks not found in North America. We are fortunate to have what many consider to be the best duck hunting concessions in Argentina. Depending on rainfall, food and duck populations, hunts are scheduled in areas where hunters can be assured of a successful hunt. Hunters normally take 6-10 different species on a trip, including Southern Widgeon, Rosy-Billed Pochard, Brown and White-Cheeked Pintails; Silver, Speckled and Cinnamon Teal, and a variety of Tree Ducks.

There are several species of flushing birds in Argentina but by far the most common and sporty is spotted “tinamou” or “perdiz”. The perdiz is slightly larger than a bobwhite quail and holds very well for pointing dogs. Hunting usually takes place in grasslands and pastures around the estancias (ranch) This hunt, usually in the afternoon following a duck hunt is truly a classic hunt with well disciplined pointers and retrievers.

With beautiful open views of the Parana River shore, this cozy thatch-roofed lodge has the most spectacular views, which makes a wonderful setting to spare and relax after enjoying the best shooting ever. Veracruz offers five (5) bedrooms with private bathrooms, and can accommodate 10 guests

Pigeons

We have several concessions with large concentrations of pigeons. The most common species of pigeons in Argentina are Spot-winged, Pjcazuro and Rock Pigeon. Pigeons decoy very well so it is very similar to shooting ducks except over dry land. No season or bag limit.

Montaraz is the most exclusive pigeon shooting lodge in Córdoba. Located between the “Sierra Chicas” and the “Sierra Grandes”, this elegantly restored 17th century Estancia is surrounded by wide verandas overlooking lovely gardens, orchards and a lake.

Big Game Hunts

Red Stag hunting takes place in 60,000 pristine acres of the Quillen River area, Neuquen, Patagonia, Argentina. Red Stag in Argentina is similar to hunting North America's Rocky Mountain range. Accommodations are comfortable with home-cooked local cuisine. Hunts are generally seven (7) days and offered March 10- April 30.

Our hunting for Buffalo, Black Buck and Axis Deer season is all year round and takes place in General Belgrano, 100 miles from downtown Buenos Aires and offers the opportunity to combine hunting with the beautiful city of Buenos Aires.
